Plaintiff's request for supplemental answers
to new interrogatories

v.

Sargent Ronald Murach
Defendant

Civil Action No. 4:21-cv-00122

In accordance with Rule 33 of the Federal Rules of civil procedure, Plaintiff request that Murach answer the following follow up interrogatories under oath, and that the answers be signed by the person making them and be served on plaintiff within 30 days of service of these interrogatories.

If you cannot answer the following interrogatories in full after exercising due diligence to secure the information to do so, state and answer to the extent possible, specifying your inability to answer the remainder and stating whatever information or knowledge you have concerning the unanswered portions.

The interrogatories shall be deemed continuing, so as to require supplemental answers as new and different information materializes.

supplement set of interrogatories:

1. I still have not received my records from Prime Care Medical that you so desperately want released to you before I have a chance to review them first. Which I told you was absolutely not happening. I'm guessing you didn't mail the latest release form I sent you. Which directed PrimeCare to release my records directly to me. If that is in fact what happened could you please mail me their address so I can obtain the records myself. I'm super excited to see all these medical and mental health records the defendants keep referring to. As soon as I receive my records I'll mail you a complete copy of them.
2. Identify and attach copies of any and all documents relating to the medical training and education that the county jail requires its corrections officers to have before they're hired. And proof of the on going training and education up to the date of 1-25-2019.
3. Where at in the jail do they conduct physical therapy for the inmates?
4. I need the full names and addresses of Corporal Rosenbaum and officer Pollock so I can send them affidavits. I plan to ~~sub~~ subpoena them as my witnesses at the jury trial you're demanding. I'm really quite excited for the trial Sir.

5. I also need the full names and addresses of Corporal Wildenstein and officer ~~W~~ Wilbanks, I know his name is Michael but I still need his address so I can send them affidavits as well. I also plan to subpoena them as my witnesses at the jury trial you're demanding. Again, I'm really quite excited for the trial sir.

Sincerely,
Robert J. Murray
